

ITEM VII. I give and bequeath to my friend, Miriam B. Hilton, of the District of Columbia, any one piece of jewelry which she may select from the jewelry of which I die possessed, absolutely.

ITEM VIII. I give and bequeath to my friend, Beatrice Bliss, of Cohasset, Massachusetts, any one piece of jewelry which she may select of the remaining jewelry of which I die possessed, absolutely.

ITEM IX. I give and bequeath to the National Symphony Orchestra Association of Washington, D. C., a District of Columbia Corporation, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), absolutely.

ITEM X. I give and bequeath to The George Washington University, a Corporation organized pursuant to act of Congress and operating in the District of Columbia, for the use of The George Washington University Hospital, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), absolutely.

ITEM XI. I direct that the legacies hereinbefore given, devised and bequeathed shall be transferred and paid free from all inheritance transfer, or succession, taxes, duties, imposts and levies.

ITEM XII. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and description whatsoever, wheresoever, and howsoever situated, now owned and possessed by me, which I may hereafter or in any manner acquire and of which I may be seized or possessed at my death, to my nephew, Frank Stier Goodwin, in fee simple or absolutely according to the nature and quality of the estate.

ITEM XIII. I hereby, nominate, constitute and appoint Daniel Partridge III of the District of Columbia the executor of this my last will and testament.
